Tinder date of Saturday, Gen. Obregon telegraphed:

Wes Abanden Villa.

The forces that were commanded by the bundle Villa and which faive now been reduced to 100 men, have abandoned him and he is followed by only eight bandin. He has been fleeing in the mountains trying to escape our troops, which follow him closely."

Gen. Obregon forwarded to the embasse Standar the following dispatch:

"After the incident at Patral, the commander of the American forces asked for a conference with the mayor of the city, jone de la Log. Harrers, and after it had taken place the mayor has informed me as follows: I visited Corral Villess, where the American forces are sneamined to the number of 400, and was very cordially received. The Asporteins are convinced they made a vital mistake in entering the town without advising the authorities. They state they seem a courier from Zaragossa, but he probably was supre-bended by the banding. On that necount he did not arrive on time."

VICINITY OF PARRAL, MEX.

A mine measurer sent to Parral from Parral and who got as far as Saina Rorbara, returned Sunday to El Paso with the information that cenditions in the vicinity of Parral are in a state of amerchy and that even Mexican civilians are not permitted to go from place to place without being robbed and assaulted. The messenger stated that he had reached limited on the day preceding the engagement between the Americans and in soldiers at Parral, but that he knew nothing of what happened have reports that had come to Jiminez. Santa Barbara is a mining campaiont 30 miles southwest of Parral. The messenger reported that the trains were operating between Parral and Jiminez and also the tolegraph wires, but that when he left Parral on Tuesday. April 11,the people were much wrought up over the reported advance of the Americans. He said there were sufficient bandits reaming on the outsiders of Parral and that time to have not only combatted with the Americans but to have done all the damage to min in interests that have been reported.

dead and that the body had been adwriffed.
"I don't know, but certainly the identification could be established." he said. "I talked with Vills for half an hour once and was so impressed with him as a personality and a study that I remember very abstinctly many things about him. I think I could identify him: though I would not care to unless requested.
"In Letcher, in Chihushus, and a number of others at Chihushus, and a number of others at Chihushus, might identify him, as they came in contact with Vills often."
